1320 Braddock Place
Alexandria, VA 22314

LEP Background

LEPs have been embedded as vital members of the US Military. As a highly skilled team consisting of experienced criminal investigators, LEPs served as planners, advisors, trainers, and subject matter experts in support of designated US Army and Marine units. LEPs have transferred their law enforcement experience from investigating criminal suspects and networks in the US to the insurgency in Iraq and Afghanistan. The military has credited the LEP program with significant contributions in targeting, capturing, and prosecuting criminals and insurgents which has led to increased community stability and saving Soldiers' lives.
